Make-up assessments:

If you wish to make up or revisit assessments from our most recent unit, please email your teacher for an alternate assessment and you will receive special instructions.

Respectful online presence:

Please remember that even while participating from home, it is important to create a respectful environment and show care for one another. Here are some helpful guidelines to keep in mind as we communicate online.

Note: Teachers have to approve Seesaw posts before they go live. That also ensures that teachers see new posts and give credit.
