

Summer Reading 2022-2023 School Year

---

English 9

All incoming 9th graders are expected to read "Buddha Boy" by Kathe Koya. There will be in-class assignments and assessments when school starts.

English 9 Enriched

English Enriched 9 students are to read "Buddha Boy" by Kathe Koya and "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" by Betty Smith for their summer reading project. There will be an assessment when school starts that will include comprehension questions on both novels.

English 10 – English 11 – ERWC

All rising sophomores, juniors and seniors need to read ONE of the two novels over the summer.

- Ace of Spades (Faridah Abike-Iyimide)
- Pest (Elizabeth Foscue)

Students will be given an assessment upon their return to school. Both of the novels feature teenaged characters who have to navigate school, friendship, family relationships, and many of the same obstacles Terra Nova students face. You can find both titles on Amazon, Audible, or at the local public libraries.

English 10 Enriched

Students are to read two novels and complete the assignments listed on this document.

- Ace of Spades by Faridah Àbíké-Íyímídé.
  - Students are suggested to read this book sometime in June.
  - Fast readers will finish this book within two days.
- Little Brother by Cory Doctorow.
  - Students are suggested to read in July and finish before the end of July.

English 11 Honors & AP English Language

Students are to read two novels over the summer. The first book is "The Autobiography of Malcolm X" by Alex Haley.

They can choose ONE of these two novels:

- Ace of Spades (Faridah Abike-Iyimide)
- Pest (Elizabeth Foscue)

AP English Literature

Students are to read these novels and complete the assignments listed on this document.

- Ace of Spades by Faridah Àbíké-Íyímídé
- Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte
- Any book of your choice.