Humanity Scholarship Award Deadline: May 31, 2023

Scholarship Value: $25,000 Awards Available: 6

We are seeking bright minds with a desire to heighten national awareness via our social media campaign to end the dehumanizing forces of human trafficking and child exploitation.

Eligibility Requirements

Must be a current high school senior or college freshman, sophomore, or junior.

Plan to attend an accredited college, university, or community college in the upcoming academic year.

Be a U.S. Citizen or permanent resident.

Have a GPA of 2.50 or higher.

Entries must be an original, unpublished video created by the entrant.

Submission Requirements

Record a video (maximum length of 2 minutes) sharing a persuasive pitch for why ending human trafficking is important to your generation. Follow the instructions below for uploading your video and consider the following prompts:

Why is it important to address human trafficking and child exploitation at this point in time?

Thousands of companies are unwittingly being used by organized criminals to facilitate human trafficking.

Why is it critical for companies to be proactive about preventing these types of crimes?

How do we lower the risk of trafficking for vulnerable populations and bring visibility to those who feel invisible?

Why is this issue time critical?

How can we raise awareness and vigilance about this issue among Gen Z for themselves and others?

How does this campaign to end trafficking improve humanity?
